B. Amore: Naples – New York

September 30-December 4, 2011

David Filderman Gallery, Joan and Donald E. Axinn Library, Ninth Floor, South Campus

For this original exhibition, contemporary American artist B. Amore creates two site-specific installations and 10 additional mixed media works. Each work focuses on the cultural and historic connections between Naples, Italy, and New York City, and the links between the immigrant experience and the issues of assimilation. She incorporates a variety of materials, found objects, historical data, writings and sheet music to explore those experiences linking Italy and America.

Presented in conjunction with the Hofstra Cultural Center conference Delirious Naples: For a Cultural, Intellectual and Urban History of the City of the Sun, to be held November 16-19, 2011. For conference registration and information, please call the Hofstra Cultural Center at 516-463-5669 or visit hofstra.edu/culture.
